BY SPECIAL MESSENGER

Memorable Robert S. McNamara
The Secretary of Defense
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McNamara:

DECLASSIFIED BY 208 BTJ/ab
ON 6-12-86
207293

In my letter of October 22, 1964, I furnished you with the results of a review of the files and the Identification Division records concerning 64 individuals listed on the list of names at Capitol Hill.

On the same day, I furnished the Bureau with a list of 32 individuals who were removed from the files of the Identification Division. These individuals have now been searched through the Identification Division records of this Bureau.

Enclosed herewith are a copy of a memorandum and copies of the Identification Division records mentioned therein which comprise the results of the above review.

I will note that the name of [redacted] just appears on the list of 32 former members of the [redacted] advised you in my letter of October 22, 1964, as the subject of an investigation by the [redacted] thereof the results will be furnished to you by [redacted] Rogers, Special Assistant to the [redacted].

Included among the 12 names of [redacted] of [redacted] of [redacted] is that of [redacted]; however, [redacted] of [redacted] 1964, was advised by the [redacted] that [redacted] is actually a present member of the [redacted].

DONALD E. LUKENS

The FBI has not investigated Lukens; however, our files do reveal that in connection with an inquiry made in September and October, 1961, we received certain information regarding Donald Edgar Lukens, born February 11, 1931, Harveysburg, Ohio.

Lukens was employed as a "case soap salesman" from March 15, 1954, to May 11, 1954, in Detroit, Michigan. On the latter date he was requested to resign due to "failure to respond to directions; lack of judgment; lack of dependability; lack of work; and lack of emotional balance." This employment was with the Proctor and Gamble Company whose regional headquarters at that time were located in Cincinnati, Ohio. He had previously listed employment as a dancing instructor at the Arthur Murray Dance Studio, address not stated, and as a salesman for Fuller Brush Company and Kirby Vacuum Cleaners while attending Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, in 1950 and 1953.

On September 12, 1961, an FBI employee of the Royal Oak, Michigan, Police Department, advised that according to their records Donald Edgar Lukens, 504 East 4th Street, Royal Oak, Michigan, was arrested by the Berkley, Michigan, Police Department on May 9, 1954, for "investigation of seducing a minor girl." No additional records were located in that police department.

On September 12, 1961, Detective Sergeant [redacted] Berkley, Michigan, Police Department, advised that his records contained an arrest card for Donald E. Lukens, also known as "Dug," born February 11, 1931, Harveysburg, Ohio. The arrest card indicated that Lukens was arrested by [redacted] and Sergeant [redacted] and taken to the Berkley Police Station. Sergeant [redacted] advised that Lukens was released on May 9, 1954, by Berkley Detective [redacted] and that at that time he indicated there was no case. [redacted] could recall the facts surrounding the arrest of Lukens.

The police records contained an arrest card for [redacted] number 4-12, which indicated that Mrs. [redacted] Wakefield, Berkley, Michigan, filed a complaint against Lukens on May 9, 1954. The substance of this complaint was as follows:

We previously have been furnished a list of 64 names of individuals who are members of the 9,999 Air Force Reserve Squadron. Jenkins is a Colonel in this group. Liaison representative, on 10/19/64, was requested to determine whether this list is complete.

On 10/19/64 contact was made with Colonel William Pratt, Executive Assistant to the Deputy Chief of Staff, Personnel, Department of the Air Force. Colonel Pratt indicated that the list of 64 names which was furnished to the FBI contained the names of all present members of the above-named squadron. Pratt indicated that as of 6/30/64 a group of individuals had been deleted from the ranks of the squadron since they were not employed on Capitol Hill. Colonel Pratt was requested to secure the names of these individuals and he stated this would be done.

On the morning of 10/20/64 Colonel Pratt advised that people in his office had worked on the evening of 10/19/64 and put together a list of 32 individuals who had been deleted from the ranks of the squadron. A list of these individuals is attached which contains their rank, date of birth, place of birth, and information regarding their security clearance. Pratt indicated that Air Force records indicated that these 32 individuals coupled with the 64 names that have been previously furnished to us comprised the current membership of the squadron as of 4/16/64.

ACTION:

NOT RECORDED

If approved, the attached list made available to the Name Check Section and the Identification Division in order that the names may be checked through our files.

In transmitting the above files, [redacted] explained they were sent on instructions of Secretary McNamara "in connection with the investigation with the 9999th Air Force Reserve Unit."

The Director noted in memorandum dated October 19, 1964, his opposition to Secretary McNamara's demand that the FBI investigate the above squadron indicating such should be handled by the armed forces. By memorandum furnished the Director dated October 23, 1964, which set forth a similar request, the Director agreed investigation of personnel of this squadron should not be undertaken by the FBI and that [redacted] be so advised orally.

We have reviewed the material furnished concerning the above persons and found nothing of pertinence to the [redacted] matter. Further, by letter dated October 23, 1964, McNamara was furnished the results of a file and identification record check which included the above persons who "were reported deleted from the ranks" of the 9999th Squadron as of June 30,
